

What our pupils say about writing at South Avenue...

Pupil Voice Quotes

What do you like best about your learning in English?

Our junior children comment about their leaning in writing at South Avenue:

Annabelle – “I enjoy writing stories because I like to invent my own characters and decide what happens to them. I really love to use my imagination.”

Kara – “I really enjoy story writing creating interesting settings and characters.”

Diana – “I like writing because I learn new vocabulary and how to write more interesting sentences. I want to improve as I move up the school and then do well at secondary school.”

Zainab – “I like writing because it’s great to write in pen!”

Emilia – “I like learning about spelling, punctuation and grammar, in fact, I like everything about writing!”

Iqra – “I like how my teacher explains everything to me so that I know exactly what to do. I know that what I learn in school will help me when I’m grown up. I love drama as it helps me remember and understand what I need to write.”

Ben – “I like learning about powerful verbs and adjectives. I want to learn how to write interesting sentences.”

Harvey – “I like learning about building sentences and how to use conjunctions to make them more detailed.”

Which genre do you most enjoy writing?

Olivia – “I particularly like writing newspaper reports because they are about real life.”

Ben – “I like writing stories best as I would like to be an author when I grow up.”

Harvey – “I love to act so I enjoy writing play scripts.”

What do you like about the whole school author visits?

“I think it is the best as I would love to be an author one day.”

“They are great fun as the authors are really good at reading stories aloud, they make writing sound fun!”
