

Term 4 – Salvation

Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?

What should I already know and be able to do?

We already know that Christians believe that Easter is a very important part of the 'big story' in the bible. We also know that Christians believe that Jesus rose again, giving people hope of a new life. Through knowing this information, we know the key events in Holy Week and know how important these events are to Christians.

Key words:

Resurrection - When Jesus came back to life.

Disciples – The twelve followers of Jesus

Palm Sunday – The start of Holy week. When Jesus rode on a donkey through Jerusalem.

Holy week – The week leading up to Easter.

Easter – The oldest and most important Christian festival.

Last supper – The last supper Jesus had before he died sharing bread and wine with his disciples. Christians during Holy week will carry this out during holy communion.

Holy Communion – A special service in church where Christians share bread and wine.

Crucified – Put to death on a cross.

By the end of the topic I will know that;

- Christians show their beliefs about Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday in worship.
- Links can be made between some of the stories and teachings in the bible and life in the world today, expressing some ideas.
- The resurrection of Jesus is important to a Christian and they remember and celebrate Jesus in the 'Holy Week'.
  - Christians today trust that Jesus really did rise from the dead and so is still alive today.
  - Christians see Holy Week as the final week of Jesus' earthly life, leading to his death.
- There were various events in Holy week such as the Last Supper and that they were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to earth to do.
