

Term 5 – Gospel

What kind of world did Jesus want? Core learning.

What should I already know and be able to do?

- Christians believe Jesus brings good news for all people.
- For Christians, this good news includes being loved by God, and being forgiven for bad things.
 - Christians believe Jesus is a friend to the poor and friendless.
- Christians believe Jesus' teachings make people think hard about how to live and show them the right way.
- Tell stories from the Bible and recognise a link with a concept: for example, the idea of 'good news' links to the practice of being thankful.
- Give clear, simple accounts of what the texts mean to Christians: for example, that people can trust God, and that they should say thank you to God for his good gifts.
 - Describe how Christians show their beliefs: for example, thanking God in prayer.
- Give at least two examples of ways in which Christians use Bible stories and texts to guide their beliefs about prayer, in their church communities and their own lives.
- Think, talk and ask questions about whether Jesus' 'good news' matters to anyone other than Christians, exploring different ideas

Key words:

Gospel- The teaching or revelation of Christ.

Forgiveness – Stop the feeling angry or resentful towards someone for an offence, flaw of mistake.

Disciple- A personal follower of Christ during his life.

Humility- The feeling or attitude that you have no special importance that makes you better than other.

Patience- The ability to wait, or to continue doing something despite difficulties, or to suffer without complaining or becoming annoyed.

What will I know and be able to do by the end of this topic?

- Jesus challenges everyone about how to live.
- Jesus challenges people who pretend to be good and shows love and forgiveness to unlikely people.
 - Jesus' life shows what it means to love God and love your neighbour.
 - That they need to try to be like Jesus – that they want to know him better.
- They need to try and put this teaching and examples into practice in many ways from church worship to social justice.
- Give at least three examples of ways in which Christians use Bible concepts in their own individual lives.
- Raise questions and suggest answers about how fair the big ideas explored in the bible might make a difference to how pupils think and live.

